

TSYS names innovation boss
Former Bain partner joins

Karim Ahmad has been named executive vice president of global product and innovation at TSYS.

Ahmad joins TSYS on September 6 and has more than 20 years of experience in financial services and consulting. Most recently he was a partner at Bain & Company in their payments, financial services and performance-improvement practices. Prior to joining Bain & Company, he served in a variety of roles at the International Finance Corporation, a member of the World Bank Group.

Ahmad earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Vassar College, a Master of Arts from Columbia University, and his Master of Business Administration from the Darden School at the University of Virginia.
